Answer:

19 February 2014

The chairman,
Dulalpur union council,
Homna, Comilla.

Subject: application for repairing damaged roads.

Dear Sir,

I, on behalf of the people of the village jounagor, would like to draw your attention to the fact that the main road leading to dulalpur from our village has been badly damaged by the recent terrible flood. Besides this, some other roads connecting the main road have also been greatly damaged. These are now almost closed and vehicles can play along the roads. As a result, the villagers, especially the students of different schools and colleges are in utmost suffering even walking on foot at night has become dangerous because of the holes in all the roads. So it is a crying need to repair the damaged roads as soon as possible.

In the circumstances stated above, I pray and hope that you would be kind enough to take immediate steps to repair the damaged roads and oblige thereby.

Yours truly,

Belal

On behalf of the people of kachua
