

Composition on Our Flowers

Similar to:

Flower: A sign of Love

Flower: A Sign of Simplicity

Flower Sign of Beauty

Everybody Loves Flowers

Introduction: flowers are the beautiful nature. Bangladesh is a land of beauty. This county is full of natural beauty. Many things are increasing the beauty of this land. Among these, flowers are increasing the beauty of this dreamy land.

Kinds of flowers: there are various kinds of flowers in Bangladesh. Some are wildflowers which bloom in the bush without care. Some are grown in the garden. Some are produced for commercial basis. All flowers differ in size, colour and smell. Some are large, some are small, some are whit some are red, some are yellow and grey. Some beautiful mixed colour.

The common flowers of Bangladesh: the Rose, Krishnachura, Palash, Shimul, Rajanigandha, Gandhraj, Bokul, Jui, Balli, Korobi, Chameli, Dalia, Jasmine, Lily and Lotus are the common flowers of Bangladesh.

Description of the flowers: the rose is called the queen of flowers. It is the most beautiful flower. It is the best of all flowers. It is seen everywhere all over the country. It grows in all seasons. This flower is very favourable to all. It is very sweet-scented. There are many colours of this flower. Anyone can produce this flower anywhere.

Nowadays this flower is grown on the roof of the house.

The Krishnachura, Palash and Shimul are beautiful flowers. These flowers bloom in the spring. These flowers are red in colour. These are found all over Bangladesh. The Champa is another flower. It is also springtime flower. The colour of this flower is golden.

The Sheoli is a small and very soft flower. It is everywhere in Bangladesh. The colour of this flower is white. It looks very charming. Marigold is another flower. This flower blooms in the winter. It has various colours, shapes and sizes. It is normally yellow and golden in colour. It looks very beautiful. The Jui, Beli, Kartini are while flowers. These are also very sweet fragrant, the Joba is another flower. It has no scent. It looks red. It blooms all the year round. The Korobi, Chameli, Dalia, Jasmine and many other flowers are seen in Bangladesh. The sunflower blooms in the rainy season. Now, the Soun flower is being produced in order to produce oil.

Usefulness: the flowers are not the only source of beauty but also a source of income. We use flowers in our everyday life. In various occasions, flowers are used as symbols of love and purity. In marriage ceremony flowers are used for decorating car, house and flower poet. The flowers increasing the beauty and gravity of any festivals.

Conclusion: it is known to all that flowers are the most beautiful object of nature. Now, flowers are being produced on a commercial basis. In Bangladesh, flowers have a good prospect. So, each and everybody should take care of flowers for the sake of beauty and purity. Now flowers are not only important for natural beauty but also for money.