

Composition on Our National Flag

Introduction: The national flag is the symbol of independence to a nation. Every independent country in the world has its separate national flag. We are also an independent nation. The name of our country is Bangladesh and we are Bangladeshi by the nation. So we have a national flag of our own. Our national flag is the simplicity of our nation.

Its size, length, and breadth: our national flag is very beautiful to look at. It is rectangular in size, the length and breadth are 5:3 in proportion. There is a round red portion in the middle. The remaining portion is deep green in color. When the flag is hoisted it looks very nice and inspiring. It appears that a red sun is shining on a land full of green corns. The meaning conveyed by the flag: our national flag conveys a deep meaning. The green portion denotes freshness and liveliness. The rising sun indicates our promising life and prosperity in future. Ours is a new state, we are proud to think that our nation and country are equal to any nation a country in the world. The bottle green color stands for the everlasting freshness, youth, vigor, and vitality of our nation. It is also the symbol of our national brilliance and past glory.

Dignity and significance: we should honor our national flag. The dignity and significance of our national flag must be preserved at the cost of our lives. When we look at our national flag, our eyes are filled with immense and contentment.

Conclusion: To every independent nation, its flag is dearer and more valuable than all other earthly possessions. We should remain every day to die for its defiance if necessary. Our national flag is as it were the spirit itself. We look upon our national flag with great respect.
