The name of my favourite teacher: I am a student of class ten. By this time I have come across a number of people. But all of them did not seem to be very interesting to me. A few of them are really integration. One of them is our English teacher. His name is Abdul mating.

Why I like him: He has been teaching at our school for ten years. He is very popular with the students. I like him the most. He is favourite to me for teaching, love, and affection and above all strict discipline.

His qualities: He is about fifty years old. He is a tall man with a big body. He is strong and healthy and looks younger than his age. He is an M.A. in English literature from the University of Dhaka. He is punctual, honest and kind. He has a great love for the students. He mixes freely and likes talking with us. He is remarkable in making his student understand the lessons. Students have never seen him missing any class. He comes to the school in time, even on rainy days. He studies a lot and knells stories than students. He shares Luis knowledge with others. He is also keen on the social welfare of our area. When anyone in the area falls in trouble, he comes running to help him. He is neither selfish nor self-centred.

Conclusion: He possesses so many qualities that I have become one of his admirers. I have never seen such an intersection person like him in my short life. Being a student of such a noble teacher, I am really proud.
