

Dialogue Between Myself and My Friend About the Preparation for The S.S.C Examination

Question: Suppose, you are Anik/Anika. Amin/Amina is your friend. You both are concerned about the ensuing Examination. Now, write a dialogue between you and your friend about your preparation for the examination.

Answer: A dialogue between Anik (myself) and Amin (my friend) about the preparation for the Exam. :

Anik: Hello Amin, how are you?

Amin: Fine. Thanks and you?

Anik: I'm fine' too. What about your preparation for the coming Exam.?

Amin: Well, I'm going on well with my studies. But I'm worried about my exam.

Anik: It's all the same about me too. But tell me about your preparation for different subjects.

Amin: You know I'm weak in maths. That's why I'm taking special care in maths. I'm having a detailed revision of other subjects. What about your preparation?

Anik: Well, my revision in all subjects has been completed.

Amin: Well, what about your model tests of all subjects?

Anik: Model tests of all the subjects are frequently being taken in our school to ensure proper preparation.

Amin: Are you working with the test papers?

Anik: Yes.

Amin: Very good. You are well on your preparation, I see. I must start working on the test papers. What do you think?

Anik: Yes. I think it'll be helpful for your preparation. I wish you the best of luck.

Amin: Thank you very much.
