

Dialogue Between You and The Manager About Opening A Bank Account and Keep Your Scholarship Money in It

Question: You want to open a bank account and keep your scholarship money in it. You have gone to a bank as a client Now, write a dialogue between you and the Manager.

Answer: A dialogue between Antu (myself) and a bank manager about opening a bank account:

Antu (myself): May I come in, sir?

Manager: Yes. of course. Have your seat, please. What can I do for 'ou?

Antu: I'm Antu, a student of class X. I need to open a bank account to deposit my scholarship money.

Manager: Oh, I see. Then you have to open a savings account.

Antu: What's the procedure, please?

Manager: It's very' simple. Firstly. you'll have to fill up an application form.

Antu: Anything else?

Manager: Then you'll have to submit it along with 2 p.p size photographs.

Antu: Is that all?

Manager: No. You've to deposit at least Tk. 1000 against your account. Besides, you've to put your specimen signature on a signature card.

Antu: Thank you. sir. You've described the procedure very clearly. Thank you very much.

Manager: You're always welcome to our bank
