

Dialogue Between You and Your Friend About Gardening

Question: Suppose, you are Mazed and your bosom friend is Rashed. You have a garden. Your friend Rashed wants to know how to make a garden and nursing it. Now, make a dialogue between you and your friend about gardening.

Answer: A dialogue between myself and my friend about gardening:

Myself: Hello Rashed, are you in your garden? I am looking for you.

Rashed: Yes, today is a holiday and I'll work for some time in my garden.

Myself: Your garden is very beautiful. Here I see many types of vegetables.

Rashed: Yes, my mother cooks very delicious 'curries with these vegetables. These vegetables are essential for our good health.

Myself: You are right. Do you do all the works in our garden?

Rashed: Yes, I enjoy these works, at the same time these works are the physical exercise for me.

Myself: Fine. I also see many types of flower trees here in your garden.

Rashed: Yes, these satisfy my mind with their beauty and scent.

Myself: Your hobby and activities are really praiseworthy. I'll also make a garden. OK friend, bye.

Rashed: Bye.