

Dialogue Between You and Your Friend on Saint Martin's Island

Question: Write a dialogue between you and your friend about Saint Martin's Island, Bangladesh.

Answer:

Myself: Hello Jahid! How are you?

Jahid: Hi friend! I am fine. What's about you?

Myself: I am also fine. Would you please give me a lot of information about Saint Martin Island?

Jahid: Oh sure! It's only a coral island in Bangladesh. There is coral of different shapes of colors in the blue waters of the Bay of Bengal.

Myself: Oh, that's wonderful!

Jahid: Yes, it is! You can also see the turtles that nest on the island and a variety of sea fishes too.

Myself: Wow! Really! Can we go sailing in the sea?

Jahid: Well, you can take a day-long cruise in the deep sea. You can hire traditional wood boats or sea-buses. The trips are exciting but safe.

Myself: Why it is famous?

Jahid: It's famous for sea fishes, dry fishes, coconut, etc.

Myself: What is the local name of the island?

Jahid: Locally it is known as Narical Gingira and Daruchini Dip.

Myself: Nice! Thank you Jahid, for your valuable information.

Jahid: You are most welcome.
