

Essay on Shakib Al Hasan

Bangladeshi popular cricketer Shakib Al Hasan is a Bangladeshi person by birth. He is an international cricketer from Bangladesh. He was born on 24 March 1987 in the Magura district of Bangladesh. His religion is Islam. Shakib is the first cricketer who attained the number 1 all-rounder ranking in all three cricket forms. He achieves this rank in January 2015 announced by International Cricket Council (ICC). Shakib married a girl on 12 December 2012, name Umme Ahmed Shishir is an American Muslim student who was born in the Narayanganj district of Bangladesh. Umme Ahmed Shishir shifted to the USA when she was at age of 10.

Shakib Al Hasan is a left-handed batsman. His bowling style is slow left arm. He is an all-rounder player from Bangladesh. Shakib started his international career by playing under 19. He played his debut test match against India on 18 May 2007. And he played his debut one-day international (ODI) match against Zimbabwe at 6 August 2006. He played his T20I debut on 28 November 2006 against Zimbabwe.

Shakib is a very popular cricketer in Bangladesh not only for Bangladesh he is more popular now all over the world for his talented play. Shakib was appointed as a vice-captain in June 2009 when Mashrafe Mortaza replaced Mohammad Ashraful. But in the first test match when Bangladesh played against West Indies, in this tour Mashrafe Mortaza injured his knee then Shakib took over as captain.

Shakib is a big fan of football games. He is a supporter of the Spanish football club 'Barcelona FC'. He likes to eat Shorshey Ilish is one of the favorite food of all Bangladeshi people. He also likes to visit with his family member. He has endorsements with some brands. There are Gameplan Sports, Pepsi, Lifebuoy, Castrol, Shakti Plus, Norton Antivirus, Le Reve, United Commercial Bank Limited, Tiffin Biscuits, Boost, Elite Force, Runner Group, Standard Chartered Bank, and Banglalink.

Shakib is very popular with his teammates. His teammates called Moyna as a nickname. The audience called Sakib Al Hasan.

Bangladeshi popular cricketer Shakib tired heard to make himself a world popular player. He wants to show his talent to all audiences in the world who like Cricket. Shakib always plays for the country to be a match-winner. Although some Cricketers just play for own self. But Shakib Al Hasan is totally different that's why he is the best in world cricket ranking.

In the Bangladesh cricket team, there has a lot of honest players who played for the country and wants to be match-winner. Some of them Mashrafe Mortaza, Mushfiqur Rahim, Nasir Hossain, Tamim Iqbal, and Anamul Haque are the popular player from the Bangladesh cricket team. They always try to show their real playing style to the audience. For this honest playing style, they get the audience's heart in a short time and they get more popularity.