My dear Raju,

It is quite a long time since I have heard from you. During this period I also did not write to you. Anyhow, now I am writing to you about an accident that took place before my eyes last week.

It was about 3 pm. We, some classmates, were on our way home from our school. When we were on the Mirpur road, near the science laboratory and trying to cross the highway road at that time a young boy was also crossing the road. Just at that moment, a truck was crossing at a great speed. No sooner had the ill-fated boy noticed it than he was run over by the speedy truck. The truck did not stop rather it speeded away. I rushed to the spot. To my horror, I saw that he was no more a human body but a lump of flesh. I was greatly shocked at this tragic scene. I could not forget the scene.

I am keeping fine. With best regards to your parents and love to the youngers.

Your loving friend

Joy
