Dear Joy,

I have just received your letter. In your letter, you have wanted to you about the fair that is held recently in our village.

You know every year on the occasion of the Nabanna Festival a fair is held in our village. Last month the festival was held as usual in our village. I went to the fair with some of my friends. The whole place was full of joy and busy activities. There were shops for different things. There were wooden toys, clay dolls, balloons, food items, etc. in the shops. There was also a big circus party with monkeys, horses and bears to show funny feats. It became a meeting place for all types of people. I bought candy, dolls, a flower vase, etc. from the fair. It was almost an exciting day for me. I returned home tired but happy.

No more today, convey my salam to your parents and love to the youngers.

Yours ever,

Jahid
