Answer: I went to my village last year with my friend, Raju. It was the 1st day of Bangla new year. The villagers arranged the Baishakhi Mela. I went to the mall with my friend. There was a big crowd in the fair. The villagers in cheerful mood visit Baishakhi Mela and buy traditional items. There were clay dolls, utensils, wooden furniture, handmade things, readymade-garments, various local goods, foods, sweets, cakes and so on. There were some special attractions. Circus parties, Jatra parties, puppet show, merry-go-round, and magic shows are some of them. We enjoyed all the items. At night when we ate some sweets with my friend, I noticed that I had lost my moneybag. There were five hundred takas in my purse. However, I enjoyed the Mela.
