Answer: A journey by bus is really interesting and thrilling. Last summer, I had the chance to make a journey by bus. My two bosom friends were with me. I enjoyed it a lot. One of my friends invited us to his Barishal home. We three friends agreed to go. On a fixed day, we reached the station. We bought three tickets for Barishal. We sat in a row. The bus left for Barishal just at 11 a.m. The bus was moving on very swiftly. Some passengers began to gossip. Some began to read newspapers. Some were snoring. It seemed that everything was running behind. We saw fields of paddy, long lines of trees, and houses on both sides. People were doing various jobs. Cowboys were grazing their cattle. All the sights charmed me a lot. After about 3 hours, the bus stopped for lunch for 10 minutes. We sat in a restaurant. There we had our refreshments. The lunchtime was out. We all got on the bus. Now it was moving so speedily. Suddenly, I felt drowsy. A light jolt from my friends awakened me. I found that we reached the destination. We got down. We enjoyed the journey heartily. The journey was so pleasant that I will never forget it.

Answer:

My dear Azad.

Now I will give you a description of a journey by bus that I have made recently. You know our friend Sohel serves in Khulna. He invited me to pay a visit to Khulna. I accepted the invitation gladly. On the 5th of September, I got upon Dhaka-Khulna coach at the Gabtali bus stand. I procured a ticket the day before. The bus was to start at 7 a. m, So I reached the Gabtali bus stand at 6 a, m. The seats of the coach were comfortable. Luckily, I had my seat by the window, it was a sunny morning. The bus left at 7 a.m. The bus started running at a good speed and soon we were far from the din and bustle of the city. Our bus was passing the road Savar, we enjoyed beautiful green fields. orchards, and trees on both sides of the highway. I also enjoyed the beautiful campus of Jahangir Nagar University. the Savar Dairy Firm and Savar Cantonment, the bus was moving ahead leaving behind the trees, houses, and small shops on either side of the road. It was really very delightful to see the green beauties of nature. An interesting part of the journey was crossing the mighty river. the Padma by ferry. Crossing the river by ferry in the gentle breeze was very pleasant. Our bus reached Daulatdia ghat. Again, I took my seat. The bus began to run at a high speed. We crossed Rajbari and Faridpur on the way. We also crossed Magura and Jhenaida on the way and reached Jessore town at about 2 p.m. I enjoyed the natural beautiful scenery on either side of the highway. When our bus stopped at Jessore, some passengers got down. Our bus reached Khulna at p. m.

Sohel received me at the bus stand. The journey gave me much pleasure. It was one of the most memorable days of my life. I bore the journey in my heart. Yours lovingly Amit.
