I bought some lottery tickets last year but my luck did not favor me. Even then I like to buy lottery tickets because it will at least increase the fund of the Red Crescent. A few days ago, I was attracted by a banner which was an advertisement for a lottery conducted by Sandhani. So I went to the nearby bank and bought two lottery tickets. Then I started to imagine what I would do if I win forty lac taka. If I win forty lac take, at first I will buy whatever my family needs. I will buy a house for my family. Then I will deposit some money with any bank for my future. I know that remaining money will not be sufficient for establishing any hospital or educational institutions. So I will make arrangement for higher studies of a poor student. Besides this, I have long been cherishing the desire to visit some countries like Nepal, Switzerland, and France. So with the rest of the money, I will travel to these countries. Oh! I have forgotten to write one more thing. I will surely buy lots and lots of books also.
