

Paragraph on A Moonlit Night

A moonlit night, the full moon shining in its entire glory in the sky, is charming and enjoyable. It is a night of dreams and it presents a beautiful sight. In the autumn the sky remains cloudless and the moon looks like a big silver disc in the sky. The shiny light of the moon floods the earth and the sky. The moon's rays reflecting on seas, rivers, ponds, and hills create a music spell. When the moon pours her light on the waves of water, it sparkles like a diamond. The smooth rays of the moon please our eyes and minds. On a moonlit night, the grand sights of the canals, rivers, and tanks present cannot be described in a word. The whole of nature looks bright and appears in celestial light. The natural beauty of a moonlit night can better be realized than described. People of all ages enjoy a moonlit night. Young boys play and little boys and girls make fun of and amuse themselves. Some people also visit their nearer house this night. It seems that the whole of nature has taken a new form and everywhere is bright, bright, and bright. A moonlit night spreads a feeling of joy in all objects of nature. So, it is really enjoyable for the newly married couple. Poets of all languages have sung highly of a moonlit night. Even, we forget our enmity with others. We make a flock and conversation in different subjects with one another. The moonlit night reminds us of the mystery of the creation of Allah. We can estimate the moonlit night as offering a charming sight to all living beings. Indeed, a moonlit night is pleasant and fine.

Or,

Paragraph on A Moonlit Night

Question: Answer the following questions to form a continuous paragraph. (100 words)

What is a moonlit night?

How does nature look then?

How do people feel on a moonlit night?

What does it remind us?

How can you evaluate the beauty of a moonlit night?

Answer: A night enlightened by moonbeams is called a moonlit night. It is a thing of beauty and joy. So, it is charming and enjoyable. On a moonlit night, the moon casts a soft silver ray on every object of nature like rivers, trees, buildings, mountains, fields, and whatnot. The watery places like canals, rivers, and tanks seem to smile on a moonlit night. The beauty is surely unspeakable. The whole of nature looks bright and appears in the celestial light. People of all ages enjoy a moonlit night. Young boys play while little boys and girls make merriment and amuse themselves on this night. It is very highly desired by a newly married couple. Men and women of the Middle Ages spent some hours gossiping and storytelling and enjoying the night. Poets of all languages have sung highly on a moonlit night. It reminds us of the beauty of the creation and the Creator. It is a great blessing of the Creator to men and nature.

Or,

A Moonlit Night

Question: Write a paragraph about 'A Moonlit Night' by answering the questions below.

What is a moonlit night?

How does a moonlit night look?

How is the sight of nature on a moonlit night?

What is the feeling of cinnamon people on a moonlit night?

What do the lower animals do on a moonlit night?

Answer: A moonlit night is a night when the full moon shines with a full beam in a clear and bright sky. On a moonlit night, the surrounding atmosphere is flooded with beams of the moon. A moonlit night is charming and attractive. It presents an amazing sight. A moonlit night dazzles our eyes and soothes our hearts. The moon looks like a silvery disc on a moonlit night. The whole world seems to be bathed with the silvery light of the moon. The canals, rivers, streams, and brooks, sparkle with the lights of the moon. People of all ages are beside with joy on a moonlit night. The boys become busy with playing because they have no work to do. On a moonlit night, people cannot go to sleep early but enjoy the beautiful sight of nature. The children come out of doors to listen to the stories narrated by their grandmothers. The old people spend their time gossiping. After a day's hard work, people like to spend their time making merriment and amusing themselves on a moonlit night. Even the lower and domestic animals do not like to stay in their sheds. The insects fly here and there to enjoy the beautiful sight presented by the moonlit night.