

Paragraph on A Picnic We Made

Question: You recently went to a picnic with your friends. Describe how much you enjoyed it. linemode details about when and where this picnic was enjoyed. (150 words)

Answer: It was winter vacation. Our college was closed. I wish some of my friends had arranged a picnic. We selected Sonargaon for the picnic spot. It is some twenty miles from Dhaka. We got into the bus hired before at about 9 am with all the necessary utensils and materials. On the way, we enjoyed ourselves very much. Some of us were singing, some were clapping. I also sang a song which was appreciated by all. After reaching Sonargaon, we finished our breakfast by am. We did not take any cooks with us. Our Mathematics teacher, Mr. Anwar Hossain, is known as an expert in cooking. Some were singing, some were cutting jokes and others were playing different games. At about 2 pm the lunch was ready. By this time all of us became very hungry. All of us took our lunch with full appetites. After lunch, we went out sightseeing. Sonargaon is a place of historical interest. It was once the capital of Bengal. The Museum of Sonargaon charmed us the most. We started at home at 5 pm after taking our tea. We enjoyed the picnic most.
