

Paragraph on A Rainy Day

Question: Write a paragraph in about 100-120 words on a rainy day. You have to use the following questions in writing this paragraph:

What is a rainy day?

How does the sky look on a rainy day?

What is the appearance of a rainy day?

What do animals do on this day?

What are the conditions of the roads?

What happens to poor people?

How do students and some people spend the day?

Answer: If it so happens that it rains all day long, we call it a rainy day. On such a day, the sky remains cloudy. The sun is not seen at all. The day looks dull and gloomy. Sometimes it rains heavily and sometimes it drizzles. Often there are flashes of lightning and roars of thunder in the sky. Birds are hardly seen to fly. They keep standing on the branches of trees. Cattle keep standing in their sheds. In such a day, people have to remain indoors. The roads become almost muddy and desolate. One cannot move easily from one place to another. One does not generally come out without compulsion. The poor suffer much. They cannot go out to earn their daily bread. It is a great joy for the students. Because classes are not held on such a day. Some people then spend time gossiping, playing cards, singing, or hearing songs. After all, a rainy day gives us both joy and sorrow. It comes to different classes of people in different ways. I feel delighted on such a day.

Or,

A Rainy Day

Question: Write a paragraph about 'A Rainy Day' by answering the questions below.

What was the particular day?

What was the month?

How did the rain start?

How long did it continue and what did nature look like?

What was your experience about the day?

Answer: It was a holiday. It was Friday in the month of Ashar. In Bangladesh, two Bengali months Ashar and Shraban are the months of the rainy season. From the early in the morning, it was drizzling. As it was a holiday I got up from bed very late in spite of repeated calling and scolding from my mother. After washing my teeth and face, I took my breakfast. Then I sat by the window. It was 10 am. The sky was overcast with dark clouds. Then it started raining in torrents. A strong wind also began to blow. Sometimes it was thundering and lightning. The roaring of thunder was heart-rending. The rain was so incessant and heavy that there was no man, or vehicle on the road. After two hours of continuous rainfall, it began to abate slowly. I took an umbrella and went to the market in our locality. I bought some eggs and returned home. Mother cooked "Bhuna Khichuri and Egg". I with my younger brother and sister ate to our heart's content. In the evening, it began to rain heavily again. But there was no thunder or lightning. The wind was not blowing so violently. The sound of rain seemed like music to me. At 10 pm we had our dinner. The rain began to cease gradually. The rain stopped by 10:10 p.m. We went to sleep at 10:30 p.m. It was a rare experience on a rainy day in my life.

Or,

A Rainy Day

Question: Write a paragraph on 'A Rainy Day' by answering the following questions:

What is a rainy day?

What is seen on a rainy day?

How do poor people face a rainy day?

How do students observe a rainy day?

Answer: A rainy day is a day in which it rains all day long. In our country, a rainy day is a common scene. It is a dull and gloomy day and the sky is overcast with black clouds. On this day everybody faces trouble going out because it rains continuously and the roads become muddy and slippery. The out-goers have to go out with an umbrella over the head, shoes in hand and clothes folded up to the knee. A rainy day is a curse for poor people because they cannot be involved in any work. As a result, they are to face a lot of suffering. A rainy day is a happy day for the students. The classes are not held and they can enjoy themselves. There a rainy day is a boon as well as a curse to people.

Or,

A Rainy Day

Question: Write a paragraph about a 'Rainy Day'. Your paragraph should include the answers to the following questions.

What is a rainy day?

What is the appearance of a rainy day? Or, how is a rainy day? Or, what usually happens on this day?

What do birds and cattle do on this day? Or, what do people do on this day?

What do children do on this day?

How do you spend the day?

What are the conditions of the roads?

Why do the poor suffer on this day? Or, what happens to the poor?

How do students and some people spend the day? Or, how do you spend the day?

Answer: If it rains all day long, we call it a rainy day. On such a day, the sky remains cloudy. The sun is not seen at all. The day looks dull and gloomy. Sometimes it rains heavily and sometimes it drizzles. Often there are flashes of lightning or thunder in the sky. Birds are hardly seen to fly. They keep staking on the branches of trees. Cattle keep standing in their sheds. In such a day, people have to remain indoors. If the rain is heavy, some roads go underwater. So, it becomes very difficult to move from one place to another. People carry an umbrella when they go out. Those who do not carry umbrellas get drenched. One does not generally come out without compulsion. Working people suffer much. They cannot go out to earn their daily bread. Some people spend time gossiping, playing cards, singing, or hearing songs. On a rainy-day, people like to eat khichuri with fish fry and pickles. Women in households get busy to prepare these foods. Some flowers bloom on a rainy day and give away the sweet smell. A rainy day is enjoyable for children. They do not need to go to school. They play indoor games and pass the time happily. A rainy day has a good effect on people's minds. They long for something on this day. They think of their dear and near ones who stay away from them. Thus, despite some disadvantages, a rainy day has its own beauty.