

Paragraph on A Teacher

A teacher is an architect of a nation. He plays an important role in building up an educated nation. He removes the darkness of ignorance from a lot of labor in his act according to the needs of his audience which is his class. He can hold the attention and interest of his students. He is a clear speaker with a good, strong pleasing voice that is under his control. He does not sit motionless before his class. He makes lessons interesting to the students. He makes his students confident and proves them clever. Everybody has something valuable inside him. A good teacher discovers the treasure hidden inside of each student. He also wants the students happy and for this, he keeps them busy. A good teacher never hankers after money. His only thought is how he could present the nation as a good citizen. He feels very happy when he can teach his students good lessons and his students make good results. Indeed the lifestyle of a teacher is very simple and he has no pride and zealousness inside him. So, he is always respected by all.

Or,

Paragraph on A Teacher

A man or woman who teaches students in any educational institution is called a teacher. He is an important person and an architect of a nation. He plays an important role in building up an educated nation. He is a friend, philosopher, and guide to the students. He makes any topic very interesting to the students so students get much pleasure in understanding the topic. He awakens the students and makes them more eager to study and do other social and religious activities besides study. He also makes them more confident and proves them clever. The hidden treasure of each student is brought out by the touch of the teacher. Several times he makes his students very busy by giving them homework and assignments. He does everything for the students. He nurses the young minds as carefully as the gardener handles the seedlings. The importance of his service knows no bounds. He teaches his students the methods of living because a good teacher knows the modern method of teaching. He is friendly with them. He tries to make his students well-disciplined, punctual, attentive, truthful, and honest. He is also considered a respectable man. Everybody respects him for his activities. After all, a good teacher never runs after money. His only thought is how he could present the nation as a good inhabitant.

Or,

A Teacher

Question: Write a paragraph about A Teacher' by answering the questions below,

Who is a teacher?

What is his role?

Why is his job so important?

What is his motto?

How does a teacher become successful?

Answer: A teacher is the guardian of civilization and culture. He is an architect of a nation. Socrates, Plato, and Aristotle were also teachers who made tremendous contributions and played a historical role in the development of human civilization. The role of a teacher is important because he rouses the thirst for knowledge among his students. He molds the character of his students, and nourishes and develops the human qualities of his students so that they may become good citizens of a nation as well as of the world. He helps his students to develop their mind and body. A good teacher is devoted to his profession. A good teacher does not run after money or any material gain. He always thinks about the mental, intellectual, and spiritual development of his students. He proves his worth when he can satisfy the inquisitiveness of his students with proper explanations and the right information. A teacher becomes successful in the true sense when he can develop all the latent human qualities of his students to make him a worthy citizen.