

Paragraph on A Typical Day of Mine

Question:

What is your morning programme?

What do you do at school?

What do you do in the afternoon and in the evening?

Do you have any change in the routine?

Answer: I have a daily routine of my own and I try to follow that very strictly. This regular work is a typical day of mine. It is my habit to get up early in the morning I brush my teeth, wash my hands and face and take my ablution and say my Fazar prayer. Then I go out for a walk in the open air for about half an hour and come back home again. Once again I wash my hands, feet, and face. After that, I take my breakfast and sit at my reading table. I read for three hours at a stretch. After finishing my regular lessons I take my bath and meal. Then I start for my school at 10 a.m. because our school starts at a.m. I always sit in the first bench and listen to what my teachers say. In the off period, I go to the common room and refresh myself by taking part in indoor and outdoor games. At Tiffin period I take tiffin and say my Zohor prayer. Our school breaks at 4 p.m. Then I come back home straight. Returning home I take my meal and say my Asar prayer. After taking a little rest, I go to the playground. I usually play football and cricket with my friends. Before the sunset I return to my home. Returning home I say my Maghrib prayer. Then I sit at my reading table and prepare my lessons till 10 p.m. After that, I say my Esha prayer and take my supper. Normally I go to bed at 11 p.m. Besides this I read the daily newspapers, weeklies, and books on literature and watch TV and listen to the radio. There are minor changes in my routine for holidays. On holidays. I go to different places to remove the monotony. This is, in brief, the description of my typical day.
