What is Ghora Dighi?

Answer: Last autumn I went to Bagerhat. I made a visit there. I went there with my father. Khan Jahan Ali's Mazar is a one-storied building. Hazrat Khan Jahan Ali was buried there. The tomb was made of cut-out stones. A big fair is held on the night of the full month of Chitra. Many people attend the fair. In front of the Mazar, there is a big tank. Local people call in the Dighi of Khan Jahan Ali. In the big tank of the Mazar, there are some crocodiles. I made a visit to Shatgamubj Mosque. It is a big and beautiful building and the mosque is decorated beautifully. Near the Shat Gambuj Mosque, there is a big dighi. The night was called the Ghora Dighi. I visited the dig and learned many things. In fact, Bagerhat is a place of historical interest.

A Visit to A Place of Historic Interest

Question: You have recently visited Bagerhat, a place of historical interest. You have been asked by your friends to describe the visit. Write about it. (Include details of when you made the visit. What important things you saw.)

Answer: During the last autumn vacation, I got an opportunity to visit Bagerhat, a great historical place. The Mazar of Khan Jahan Ali is a delicate storied building. It has a beautiful dome. Hazrat Khan Jahan Ali was buried there. The tomb is made of cut-out stones. There is a small mosque nearby, A close associate of Khan Jahan Ali was buried outside the tomb. On the night of the full moon of the month of Chaitra, a big fair is held beside the Mazar. Many people attend the fair. There is a big tank in front of the Mazar. The local people call it the Dighi of Khan Jahan Ali. There are some crocodiles in this big tank. I also visited the Sat Gombuj Mosque (Sixty Dome Mosque). It is a big beautiful building. The mosque is beautifully decorated. The mosque has great attractions for tourists and visitors. There is a big dighi near the Satgambuj Mosque. This dighi is called the Ghora Dighi. I visited r this Dighi and learned many things about Khan Jahan Ali's social work. Bagerhlt is really a place of historical interest, I spent eight hours there and saw many historical things and enjoyed myself. I left Bagerhat but the memory still haunts my mind.
