

Paragraph on Academic Friend

An academic friend is a friend with whom we can share our study-related tasks, solve problem, and part with different types of thinking which are supportive for developing our skills. The academic friends may be one or more. With an academic friend, we can share not only academic objects but also others. Thus, every student has to keep an academic friend to fulfill his skills and reach his destination within a perfect time. Moreover, discussion with an academic friend makes a student self-confident, more brilliant, and active. Similarly, it widens the thinking power, outlook, generosity, and artfulness of a student. Again, it helps him to utilize his time properly, be punctual, and be supportive. As a result, a group discuss-er can easily learn how to develop both his society and nation. Therefore, every student should keep an academic friend to become a good student and contribute many contributions of his nation.
