Deterioration of Law-And-Order Situation of Bangladesh

Answer: It is very shocking that the law-and-order situation of our country has deteriorated seriously. The whole country is in the grip of hardened criminals. Killing, hijacking, pistoling, and other antisocial activities occur in broad daylight at random. There is none to challenge their activities. People are always panic-stricken. They do not feel secure at all. People cannot enjoy a peaceful breath and pass every moment in great awe because they may fall an easy victim to the sweet will of the born criminals. In a word, the whole country is in the grip of the criminals.

This problem cannot be solved overnight. First of all, the law and order situation of the country should be improved. Law enforcing authorities should always be on the alert. The criminals should be sternly dealt with. Exemplary punishment should be inflicted on the criminals. The judicial system regarding the punishment of the criminals should be prompt because there goes a proverb that “Justice delayed justice denied”. More law and enforcing authorities should be employed at important points. If they are provided with suitable jobs. many of them will give up this hateful criminal activity. Moreover, people of all walks of life should come forward to develop their morality.
