

Paragraph on Experience of Train Journey Or, A Journey by Train

Question: Answer the following questions to form a continuous paragraph. (100 words)

Did you ever undertake a journey by train?

When did you make the journey?

What was the occasion?

How much did you enjoy it?

Describe the journey.

How do you feel now when you remember it?

Answer: I had a journey by train as I wished to spend a few days at my village during the Eid vacation last year. I enjoyed it very much. The journey was full of pleasure. I had the opportunity to sit by a window. As the train started moving, I suddenly was plunged into a huge sense of pleasure, seeing the huts, trees, and shops running backward, and feeling an ecstasy of dynamicity. The sound of the train's wheels was hitting on the way-side trees and hedges and huts and reflecting back as though they were incessant head-beating sounds of the metallic titan. I kept looking at sights of near and distant places and became spellbound by their novelty and picturesqueness. I crossed huge fields looking solitary with no crops, meandering canals, and green orchards. My train journey was up to my satisfaction. Still, I feel excited whenever I remember it.

Or,

Paragraph on A Journey by Train

Question: Recently you have made a journey by train. You have been asked by your friend to describe the journey. (Include details about when and why. where and how this journey has been made, your feeling and enjoyment.)

Answer: During the last autumn vacation I got sufficient time. So I decided to make a journey by train from Khulna to Rajshahi. I reached the station about half an hour before the departure of the train. It was then a very busy time. Rickshaws, motor cars, and other vehicles were coming to the station with passengers. After some time hearing a whistle, the passengers stood in a queue before the ticket counter. I also stood in line and bought a second-class ticket. At the right time, the train came and the guard whistled and waved his flag. Everybody tried to get on the train first. After much difficulty, I got into a second-class compartment. The compartment was full to its capacity. The train left the station. I looked outside and found the beauty of nature. The train was running through green paddy fields. There were jute and sugarcane plants here and there. They were tossing their heads in the breeze. The compartment presented a good scene. Some of the passengers were talking about various matters. Some were reading newspapers and magazines. Hawkers came up to us with their goods for sale. The train reached the Rajshahi Station at 10 p. m. I got down. The journey in my heart I bore. It gave me much pleasure. Indeed it was one of the most memorable days of my life.