

Paragraph on Gardening

Gardening means the cultivation of flowers on a plot of land. It is a good pastime. Some people take to gardening as a hobby. I am one of those who have gardening as their hobby. In our country, the rainy season is the best time to lay out a garden. At this time soil remains soft and can be prepared easily for putting up plants. The weather is suitable for vegetation. During this season anyone can set about gardening with ease and pleasure. It provides a diversion from monotonous routine work. When the flowers bloom, the garden becomes a sight to see. It fills the air with a charming fragrance.

Or,

Gardening

Question: Write a paragraph about 'Gardening' by answering the questions below.

What does gardening mean?

What is the classification of gardens?

What should a man or woman do for gardening?

What happens to a gardener when flowering blooms?

Why should everyone make gardens?

Answer: Gardening means working on a piece of land close to one's house where one can grow flowers, vegetables, fruits, etc. Many people have the habit of gardening. Many young and old people are fond of gardening. Everyone can make a garden in the vacant places near his house. Gardens are of many kinds. A garden may be a flower garden or a vegetable garden, A person must have a liking for making a garden. To make a garden one has to work hard. He has to collect seeds or saplings. Every morning and afternoon he has to water the plants, lose the soil, and use pesticides when the plants are attacked by pests. A flower garden gives one the greatest pleasure. When various flowers bloom. the gardener's joy knows no bounds. A vegetable garden helps a man financially. Gardening gives a man harmless joy. Everyone should make a garden for pleasure.