

Paragraph on How to Behave with Your Classmates

Persons who are in the same class as you at a school, college and university are your classmates. Classmates are your best friends. It is very much important that you behave well with them. Help them understand any lesson they don't understand. Help them in danger. Be intimate and friendly with them. If you have any problem, discuss it with them. Don't quarrel with them. If you have any dispute otqp, compromise it instantly. Try to sacrifice your interest in unity. You may invite them to your house on any occasion. You may also help your poor classmates lending books. Remember as you behave with them so you will get from them.