

Paragraph on How to Make A Cup of Tea

Question: Imagine your younger sister doesn't know how to make a cup of tea. Write a paragraph telling her how to make a cup of tea.

Answer: My sister; Deepa does not know how to make a cup of tea. But I know how to do it. So, I have made her know how to make a cup of tea. Preparing tea is not difficult. One requires a kettle, a teapot, water, milk, sugar, and tea. Note what I tell you and you will find that it is not difficult to make a cup of tea. First boil water in a pot. Then put some tea in it. Next, when it changes its color, take it in a cup. After that pour milk into it. Take care not to pour too much of it. Finally, you have to put some sugar into the cup and stir it with a spoon until the sugar dissolves. You must not put too much sugar. In fact, milk and sugar have to be added according to an individual's taste. Some people prefer lemon tea. When you make tea for them, add some lemon juice instead of milk. In serving, tea-milk or sugar may or may not have mixed with tea according to the taste of the person taking tea.

How to Make a Cup of Tea

Tea is the most popular drink in the present day. Almost all men rich or poor, young or old have tea every day. To make a cup of tea is not difficult. First, keep three or four cups of tea in a kettle. Then you put the kettle on the Chula till the water is boiled. Then you take two spoonfuls of tea and leave them in the water. When you see that the water has turned red, you remove the kettle from the Chula. Then you pour the liquor into a cup through a strainer. You mix some sugar and milk with the liquor and stir it until the sugar dissolves. Thus tea is made and ready for drinking. In the case of lemon tea, it has to be added lemon juice instead of milk.
