

Paragraph on How to Make a Pen Friend

A pen friend is a person whom you make a friend by writing letters. You often have never met with him. He lives in a foreign country. Making a pen friend is not so difficult. If you want to make a pen friend, you need to do certain things. First of all, collect the address of the person whom you want to make a pen friend with. You may collect his address from a magazine or you can write to the International Pen friend Society to provide you an address book. Select the right person judging his age, hobby, sex, education, country, etc. Then write him a letter describing your age, hobby, sex, education, country, etc. Now, post the letter and wait for the return mail. If he accepts you, you will get his reply after a few days. He has become your new pen friend.
