

Paragraph on How to Make Tea

Question: Your younger sister does not know how to make a cup of tea. Write a paragraph telling her how to make a cup of tea. You may use the following keywords.

[first, then, next, after that, finally]

Answer: It is astonishing that you do not know how to make tea. Note, what I tell you and you will find that it is not difficult to make a cup of tea. First, pour a cup of water into a kettle and add half a cup extra. Then put the kettle on a stove and turn on the gas and light a fire. Allow the kettle to remain on the stove until the water has boiled for at least five minutes. Now pour the boiling water into a teapot. Next, put about two teaspoonfuls of tea into the teapot and cover it. After taking tea leaves or dust have soaked in the steaming water for about three minutes, pour the concoction or liquor as it is sometimes called, into a teacup. Use a strainer if there is none at the root of the spout of the teapot. After that, put some milk into the cup. Take care not to put too much of it. Finally, you have to put some sugar into the tea and stir it until the sugar dissolves. You must not put too much sugar. In fact, milk and sugar have to be added according to an individual's.
