

Paragraph on Learning A Foreign Language

Question: Answer the following questions to form a continuous paragraph. (100 words)

Do you feel the need to learn a foreign language?

What foreign language do you think most important to learn?

Do you read it?

Do you write it?

Do you speak it with your friends?

Answer: Learning a foreign language is a medium to form an interaction with other nations because we never understand the other nation without the knowledge in the foreign language. As I am very keen to know the outer world I feel interested to learn foreign languages. Among many foreign languages, most important foreign languages of today are English, Arabic, German, French, Chinese, Spanish and so on. But it's not possible for me to learn all these languages at a time. So I should select a specific language which I can learn well. I have selected English to learn as it is the international language and it is widely used all over the world. I read and write English regularly to develop the language skills. By reading and writing, one can also get over one's deficiency in any language. I always try to speak English with my friends to exchange views on different issues. Speaking English is one of the significant ways to learn English well. I have every reason to believe that I will be benefited largely by learning this widely celebrated language.

Or,

Learning A Foreign Language

Question: Answer the following questions to form a continuous paragraph. (100 words)

Do you like to learn a foreign language?

What foreign language do you think is the most important to learn?

Do you read it? Do you write it?

Do you speak it with your friends?

Answer: I think that we should learn at least a foreign language. English is the most important foreign language to learn. Because it is an internationally accepted language. It is essential to communicate with foreigners. The importance of English cannot be described in words. All that is the best in European and American thought is available through English. We need to learn English for our higher education. To learn this language. skills of reading, writing, listening, and speaking are essential. I keep a diary to practice English. I write my each and everyday activities in English. I like to read a lot of books written in English. I also read English newspaper every day. In order to develop my spoken skill, I always speak it with my friends and teachers. But some of my friends are not interested in English. They are shy to speak English. Some of them laugh at me and tease me. But I do not pay any heed to them. I think these are the ways through which one can learn English.