Where does he live in?

Why do you like him?

Answer: I am a sports fan. I like all kinds of outdoor games especially cricket. Among the cricket players, I like Sunil Manohar Gavaskar of India. He is my favorite sportsman. He reigned in the field of batting for more than twelve years. He is one of the greatest cricketers in the world. As a batsman, he is a host in himself. For his short size and bright performance, he is called the 'Little Master.' He is known all over the world as the record-breaking Gavaskar. He always likes to make new records by breaking the old. He has the record of playing highest test matches, highest run and so on. The sound temperament which is the key to success of a cricketer is fully present in him. People called him the run machine. Most of his strokes are of copybook style. In score and style, he is second to only Bradman. In my opinion, he is one of the best guys in the field of world cricket. Now he is a class one critic and commentator of cricket.
