

Paragraph on My Future Plan

Question: Answer the following questions to form a continuous paragraph. (100 words)

What is your plan for life?

Why have you adopted this plan?

How are you preparing yourself according to this?

What is your parent's idea about your plan?

Answer: Everyone wishes to succeed in life. For that, one must have a definite goal and a plan. I too have a plan of my own. From my boyhood, I cherished a desire to be a doctor. The miserable condition of our countrymen mainly led me to adopt this plan. Many people in our country die every year for want of proper treatment. Poor people in the villages suffer the most. Seeing all these I have decided to be a doctor. Now I am preparing myself for this. From class IX I have been studying in the Science group with Biology. I am trying hard to improve my results so that I can get a chance at Medical College. After passing the MBBS, I will practice in the village. Not only as a doctor, I will try to serve my countrymen as a social worker. I want to make people conscious about their health. I shall try to treat poor people without any fees. In this way, I want to serve my countrymen. And it is quite encouraging to note that my parents support my idea.

My Future Plan

Question: Write a paragraph about 'Your Future Plan' by answering the questions below.

What is your plan of life?

Why have you adopted this plan?

How are you preparing yourself according to this?

What is your parent's idea about your plan?

Answer: None can succeed in life without a fixed plan. I have a plan too. At present, I read in class XI. I want to be a social worker. I have taken up this plan because I think through social work I can serve humanity best. Since my boyhood, I have wished to serve my country with care and eagerness. For this, I am preparing myself very effectively and honestly. I have decided to study social welfare in honors and master classes. After completing my studies, I will join any social welfare-based organization. I think a plan is very essential for future success. The reason for being a social worker is for the greater interest of society. It is genuine, not artificial. Through my honest efforts and endeavors and God's grace, I can make it successful.
