

Paragraph on My Living Place

Question: Answer the following questions to form a continuous paragraph. (100 words)

Where do you live? Is it a village or a town?

What type of village/town is it?

Is it free from terrorism?

What are the attractions?

What do you feel to live in this area?

Answer: I live in a village in the Satkhira district. It is a small village which stands by the river Isamoti. It is an ideal village in this district. Though it is a village, all the modern facilities like electricity, gas, and mobile network are available here. There are many notable persons who are nationally and internationally recognized. This village is completely free from chaos and confusion. The villagers are very simple and amicable. They feel proud to live in this area which is safe and secure. There are many attractions in our village like medical facilities, education facilities, and a communication system. This village is comparatively free from terrorism and anti-social activities like other villages in the country. I feel happy to live in the village.

Or,

My Living Place

Question: Write a paragraph about 'Your Living Place' by answering the questions below.

What kind of family do you live in?

How long have you been living there?

How is the environment of your locality?

What are the facilities that you can enjoy?

What are the special attractions of the place?

Answer: I live in a village in the district of Comilla. It is a small village which stands by the river Gomti. It is an ideal village in the district. I have been living there for about 18 years. This being my birthplace has a close tie with my life. My living place is an ideal home for me. It has a special attraction for me. The fresh air, the green vegetables and fruits, the chirping of birds, the cool water of the river, the beautiful scenery of the landscape, and especially, the pure and simple villagers attract me. Though my living place is in a rural area, all the modern facilities like electricity, gas, and mobile network are available here. The road communication with the town is very good. We have also medical and educational facilities: This village is completely free from any kind of pollution. The people of my village are very conscious of the rules of health and sanitation. There is no unsanitary latrine. This village is comparatively free from terrorism, anti-social activities, chaos, and confusion. I feel proud of my village.