Answer: On the occasion of the Nabanna Festival a fair was held under the age-old banyan tree situated in our village. I felt tempted to visit the fair. I went to the fair with some of my friends at 4 in the afternoon. The whole place was full of joy and busy activities. There were shops of different types. There were wooden toys. clay dolls. balloons and food items etc. in the shops. There was also a seesaw, merry-go-round, rope dancing there. I bought candy, dolls, a flower vase, etc. from the fair. It was almost a hectic day for me. I returned home in the evening tired but happy.

Or,

My Visit to The Book Fair

It was Friday. I and the students of our class went to visit the book fair. Our class teacher, Mr. Mazhar went with us. We went there by bus. The bus was waiting at the school gate. We were getting on the bus. Our parents were waiting to see us off. It was a fine day. The sun was shining brightly. We were very happy. We were carrying bread, butter, bananas, eggs, etc. for our breakfast. Mr. Mazhar sir was taking some chocolate too. My friend, Monika was also carrying a camera. It was 9 o'clock. We left the school for the fair. We reached the fair at 10 o'clock. We got down, went round, and enjoyed ourselves. We bought books of rhymes, jokes, stories, dictionaries with pictures, novels, etc. We returned home in the evening. We enjoyed the fair very much.
