

Paragraph on My Visit to One of My Friends' House

Question: Suppose you went to one of your friend's house. You stayed a few days there. Now write how you enjoyed it there.

My Visit to One of My Friends' House

Answer: Asif is my friend. His village home is in Sylhet. On the occasion of last summer vacation, I went to his house to spend a few days there. All the members of Asif's family especially his parents received me with their deep warmth of heart. They were beside themselves with joy to have me in their midst after a long gap. His village is a place of scenic beauty. It is surrounded by a vast expanse of green scenery. I lost myself in the midst of nature. The thing that attracted me most was the tea gardens which were not very far away from their house. I used to go there with Asif very often and let loose ourselves there. They have a big pond which abounds with fishes. Sometimes I used to fish there. I also swam in the pond. I was there so happy that I could not realize how my days came to an end.
