Question:

- What is a school magazine?
- How is the magazine committee formed?
- How are the editors elected?
- What is the function of a business editor?
- What does the magazine contain?
- What is the necessity of publishing a magazine?

Answer: A school magazine is the mirror of the literary works of the teachers and the students of the school. We are the students of a renowned school in the district of Manikgonj. We publish a magazine every year from our school. We have a magazine committee consisting of nine members they are: three teachers and six students. The headmaster acts as the chief patron of the committee. The other two teachers act as advisers and proof-reader. The other editors are elected from among the students. Spaces are sold to the business concerns for advertising of their products. We have a magazine found to meet the necessary essays, poems, stories, short plays, riddles, jokes, etc written by the teachers and the students. Our school magazine is a great boon for us. It helps us express our feelings and thoughts and develop our creative powers. We are proud of our school magazine.
