

Paragraph on The Prize Giving Day at Our School

Question:

When was the prize-giving day celebrated?

How is the campus of your school decorated?

Who was the chief guest?

What did the chief guest do on this day?

What did the headmistress and the teachers do?

How did the students enjoy this day?

How was it concluded?

Answer: A prize-giving day is an annual event in a school. It is a special day particularly for the students who excel in academic, co-curricular, and extracurricular activities. We had our prize-giving day on 5 December last year. The entire stage was colorfully decorated. Our headmistress and her colleagues received the chief guest at the gate. Then he was guided to the auditorium. At 10:00 am the program started with the recitation from the Holy Quran. The headmistress delivered her welcome speech. Then the chief guest along with the headmistress took their positions on the dais. One of our respected teachers called over the names of the recipients. They went up to the chief guest one by one and took prizes. He congratulated them as he shook hands. After about an hour, the ceremony was over. The chief guest thanked all and advised the students to devote themselves to study and nation-building works. The headmistress gave her concluding speech thanking all. Finally, the day's program ended with a musical soiree. I personally enjoyed the day, very much and still remember every bit of it.

Question: Write a paragraph on 'The Prize Day of Your School' by answering the following questions:

When did your school observe the prize day?

How your school was decorated?

Who was the Chief Guest of the program?

How did the program come to an end?

Answer: At last the long-awaited prize day of our school came and it was held on the 15th August last. It was really a memorable day of my life. We decorated our school with colored paper and flowers. The Chief of the program was the Deputy Commissioner of our district. When the Chief Guest came the program began. The Headmaster read out the annual report of your school. The prize-giving ceremony began at 4 p.m. The Chief Guest gave away the prizes. I also got a prize for my good result. Our Headmaster delivered a short speech and the program came to an end.

Prize-Giving Day in Our School

The prize-giving function of our school was held on the fifteenth January. The Vice-Chancellor of Dhaka University, as the chief guest, was invited to charm the occasion. The preparations for the function started a month earlier. The school hall, where the function was to be held, was beautifully decorated with pictures, colorful flowers, banners, and charts. The auditorium and its dais were also brightly decorated and prizes were neatly displayed on a separate table on the dais. All the students were present at the function. Among others, the guardians and some eminent persons of the locality attended the function. The visitors were very much impressed by the arrangements that the students had made. At 4 pm the function had started. In the nick of time, the Vice-Chancellor of Dhaka University came in his car. He was accorded a warm welcome. Our Headmaster first read out the annual report. Then the Chief Guest gave a short speech. He highly praised the overall performance of the school and its excellent JSC and SSC Exam results. Then he gave away the prizes among the students for their outstanding activities. I got two prizes—one for regular attendance and the other for good results in the last year-ending exams. After completing the ceremony we had staged a drama.
