

Paragraph on Truthfulness

Truthfulness is a great virtue. It is stating the whole fact. It is essential to winning others' confidence. It brings respect. It helps one to prosper in life. It wins real friends. Truthfulness wants us to tell the actual happening without adding or concealing anything. In every walk of life, we may fall into the temptation to tell a lie. By telling a lie, one can become successful in one or two occasions but ultimately it becomes known to everybody of the actual fact. When he is exposed everybody recognizes him as a liar. Nobody trusts a liar. The habit of speaking the truth must be formed from childhood. Mothers should always encourage their children to speak the truth about whatever offense they might have done. A mother can reward a child for speaking the truth so the child will be inspired to speak the truth. Sometimes parents become unnecessarily harsh with their children. So they can nil some facts or add something to it. In this way, they form the habit of telling a lie. Parents must be very careful about forming the habit of speaking the truth to their children. Truthfulness is the stair to success.

Or,

Paragraph About Truthfulness

Question: Write a paragraph about 'Truthfulness' by answering the questions below.

What is truthfulness?

What is the nature of a truthful man?

What does a truthful man always hate?

What does not a truthful man like?

How does a truthful man help to progress and prosperity of a society?

Answer: The habit of speaking the truth is called truthfulness. This is a great and rare virtue. The habit of speaking the truth greatly influences the formation of character. A truthful man is always fearless, sincere, frank, and straightforward. A truthful man is a man of principle and personality. He does not like flattery, falsehood, and treachery. A truthful man always hates to adopt unfair means. Truthfulness helps develop other good qualities in a man. A truthful man can be of great help to the progress and prosperity of the country. The habit of speaking the truth should be formed from childhood. Truthfulness is rewarded in the long run.