

Paragraph on Your House

Question: Suppose, your friends are Seema. She wants to know from you about the house. Now write a paragraph about your house following the keywords:

Where is it situated?

What type of house is it?

What things possess?

Answer: The house I live in is a tin-shaded one. It is situated at Islampur union under the district of Chapai Nawabganj. The house looks beautiful from the outside. It faces the north. There are four bedrooms and a reading-room for me. The kitchen stands on the south and consequently smoke cannot enter the house. There is also a spacious yard where a small flower-garden is situated. I water the flowers daily. Outside of my house, there are ten to twelve trees of various kinds surrounding my house which give us shade. The river Mahananda enhances the beauty of my house as it flows with its murmuring sound just beside the house. There is a high school near my house as well. am proud and happy to live in such a house that is free from the din and bustle of urban life.

The House I Live In

Question: Write about the house you live in, its location, and physical facilities.

Start like this: The house in which..... The house faces..... There are three-bedrooms..... There is a flower garden.....

Answer: The house in which I live is a tin-shed. It looks very beautiful. The house faces the south. So, the sunshine and fresh air can easily enter the house. There are three bedrooms and a study for me. The kitchen stands on to the north and this smoke cannot enter the house. There is a flower garden in front of my study. It stands on a high road and we can move from one place to another easily. The river Chitra enhances the beauty of my house as it flows with its murmuring sound just beside the house. I am happy to live in such a fine house which is far away from the din and bustle of city life.
