Answer: My parents are K. Alam and Mrs. H. Khanam. My father is an M.A. and my mother passed the Exam. My mother is a housewife and my father is a businessman. Father is always busy with his business and mother is busy with her homework. Father spends much time on social activities. The mother works in our family very sincerely. She does every household work and takes care of us. She dearly. She always hopes to see or find us happy. She holds our good above everything. She also keeps our house neat and clean. Our parents are active, painstaking, and social. Both of them take special care of us. So, I like them very much. I am really fortunate that I have come to such parents.

Paragraph on My parents

Parents are the source of our life on earth. I have also parents who are bringing up me since I was born. They are my best friends and well-wishers. My father's name is MD. Siddikur Rahman. He is a B.A. He is a businessman. He looks very smart. He goes to market on foot. When he returns home from his shop, he plays with me. Sometimes he takes me to school when he is at home. Mrs. Mahmuda is my mother. She is also a B.A. She is a housewife. She works at home. She prepares our breakfast, lunch, and dinner. She takes care of us. She helps me with my studies. Every day she takes me to school. Sometimes she tells me stories. She is a pious woman. She teaches me religion. Sometimes she goes to market. In spite of this, they always take care of my studies. They look after the whole family. My parents always wish that I may be an honest, sincere, hard-working, polite, and first-class citizen in Bangladesh.
