

Short Paragraph on Exam Tips (Exam Strategies)

Question:

On what does the result of a student depend?

What should he do before going into the exam hall?

How should he use his time?

What should he do after getting the question paper in hand?

What should he do underline and why?

What should he do before submitting the answer scripts?

Answer: Exam-strategies work as a great determining factor for a student to win in the battle of examinations. It brings about 50% of his chances of success besides his subject knowledge. He must follow the following exam-tips for the purpose: a) to check and double-check exam. Dates and times; b) to make the things be carried in the exam hall ready the day before; c) to make a budget of time and use it properly. It is not wise to waste time elaborating adequate answers. D) to make attempts to answer all the questions asked; e) to read through the whole question paper before starting to write; f) to spend at least five minutes per question thinking about planning the answer; g) to underline the keywords in the question paper to concentrate thinking; h) to keep hand-writing unchanged all through the examination; I) to make time for revising answers.