

Paragraph on Religious Festivals in Bangladesh

Question: Write a paragraph about 'A Religious Festival in Bangladesh' by answering the questions below.

Why do people observe a religious festival?

What are the festivals that Muslims observe?

What are the festivals that Hindus observe?

What festivals do Buddhists observe?

Answer: The followers of every religion have some religious festivals. They observe some rituals to celebrate the religious festivals. They pray to God with devotion at certain religious festivals. The followers also have some pleasure and delight on these occasions. People gather and observe these religious festivals in a body. The Muslims observe Eid-ul-Fitr and Eid-ul-Azha. The Hindus observe Durgapuja, Kalipuja, Luxmipuja, etc. The Buddhists observe "Buidhya Purnima, Maghi Purnima, etc. The Christians observe the Christmas day with great solemnity and fervor. Muslims all over the world, believe, that Shab-e-Barat is a night of great significance. Many tribal people in Bangladesh have their religious festivals too. So, Bangladesh wears a festive look all around the year for one or another religious festival.